The attacking team of your dreams

1. PETER BOROTA

CHELSEA'S overlapping goalkeeper! The Yugoslav international is a great favourite with the fans at Stamford Bridge and he has their hearts in their mouths with his excursions upfield.

Between the posts he is equally entertaining and the fans love to watch his acrobatics as he flings himself into yet another save.

Despite his unconventional methods, Peter is one of the best keepers in the game and he has played a major part in Chelsea's surge up the Second Division this season.

3. KENNY SANSOM

KENNY Sansom is destined to become one of the world's best left backs.

Although stopping goals is his priority Kenny is a master at creating chances for his Arsenal team-mates and he has become a firm favourite with the Highbury crowd since his £1m move from Crystal Palace.

His sweet left foot pin-points team-mates and his sweeping passes so often change defence into attack.

5. ALLAN EVANS

WHEN Aston Villa's swashbuckling, goalscoring central defender Allan Evans charges upfield for a corner the Holte End comes alive.

There's no better centre-half in the League when it comes to scoring spectacular goals... and he can stop 'em at the other end too.

In defence the six-foot Scotsman is a no-nonsense player and a king of the air.

Bought from Dunfermline two seasons ago Allan is fast approaching his 100th league appearance for Villa.

2. JOHN GIDMAN

'GIDDY the Greyhound' sets Goodison Park alight with his speedy runs up the right flank as he builds yet another attack for Everton.

As well as his exciting forays upfield, John has an explosive right foot and always sets the crowd buzzing as he prepares to whack a free kick just outside the box.

Capped once for England, John joined Everton from Aston Villa and has made over 200 appearances for the 'Toffees'.

6. KEVIN BEATTIE

BUSTLING Kevin Beattie... anything can happen when this skilful player takes to the field, as Portman Road fans will testify after his spectacular goal for Ipswich against Bohemians of Prague in the recent UEFA Cup match.

The Ipswich 'powerhouse' had not been on the field two minutes when he blockbusted a tremendous free kick past the Czechoslovak keeper.

Former England international Kevin has been dogged by injuries, but when he is fit he can play anywhere in midfield or defence.

At the back he is Mr. 100 per cent when it comes to determination and he's continually urging his team mates on — but also loves to get forward and have a crack at goal.

ENTERTAINMENT...... that's what the game we love is all about.

Forget the struggle for points just for a moment and imagine the attacking team of your dreams. That's what we've done in the Match Weekly office.

And after hours of fun and argument we've come up with a super star-studded line-up of players packed with flair, dazzling skills and goal power.

Just cast your eye over our team... and beat it for entertainment value if you can!

If you think you can do better write down your team and send it to: 'The Entertainers', Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

They're the entertainers

4. TONY CURRIE

'MR COOL' — that's the master of midfield Tony Currie of Queens Park Rangers.

"When Tony gets the ball you almost expect a goal," said one admiring colleague.

And Tony has the same effect on the Loftus Road fans as he controls the middle of the park.

The former England and Leeds United star has the elegance of Trevor Brooking and the shooting power of Peter Lorimer.

8. GLENN HODDLE

POTENTIALLY the most dangerous attacking midfielder player in the country Glenn possesses all the exciting skills imaginable going forward.

One of the few English players who can compete with the Continentals in free-kick situations, he always has an eye for the spectacular.

Scored 22 goals for Spurs from midfield last season and his tally this season is already nearing ten.

His defence splitting passes continually create chances for his team mates too.

Glenn has won four full England caps since his elegant display — and super goal — on his debut against Bulgaria just over a year ago.

7 KENNY DALGLISH

MASTER of the unexpected, deadly Kenny Dalglish is the King of the Kop.

The Liverpool fans are headover heels about his skills in the box and his merciless finishing.

Bought from Celtic as a replacement for Kevin Keegan, the quietly spoken Scottish international has let his goals do the talking and has banished the England skipper's ghost from Anfield.

Kenny is a must for any team and has been one of the major reasons for Liverpool's tremendous exploits in recent years.

9. FRANK WORTHINGTON

STILL one of the most exciting characters in the game today, he knows every trick in the book — plus a few more!

The Birmingham City striker has an ageless flair for scoring spectacular goals and is a real crowd pleaser with his superior skills.

Frank is a rare breed of player who can turn a game on his own with one piece of pure magic.

Top scorer in the First Division in season 1978-79 when he scored 24 League goals for Bolton, he's already bagged 11 in League and Cup games this term.

10. VINCE HILAIRE

EXCITING young England international Vince Hilaire is a king when it comes to ball control.

A great dribbler, his close control in tight situations is superb. But the Crystal Palace player can also hit the ball with some force, as Leicester City 'keeper Mark Wallington found out to his cost earlier this season.

Vince made a storming run from midfield and sent the Selhurst Park crowd crazy as he unleashed a screamer which left Wallington groping.

11. KEVIN KEEGAN

SOUTHAMPTON and England skipper Kevin Keegan is the livewire of our 'Entertainers' team.

The buzzing enthusiasm and skill of power-packed Kevin keeps our team ticking over.

He never stops running and encouraging his team-mates.

Kevin, who returned home from Hamburg SV in the close season, is having a tough time with injuries, but he is an asset to any team.

Dundee dynamite

FOR ONCE this week, the talk of the Tayside city of Dundee has not been of unemployment and rising prices.

It has been of Saturday's big derby clash at Dens Park, home of First Division Dundee, who aim to stop neighbours Dundee United from taking the Scottish League Cup for the second year running.

"The final has come at a great time," United's ace striker Willie Pottigrow told me. "The City is a depressed area, like many in Scotland because of the unemployment situation and this match is just the boost it needs."

"The talk has been of nothing else but the final since we both got through and I'm really looking forward to it."

"I love the big occasion, I seem to do well, certainly I did last year when I scored two in the 3-0 replay win against Aberdeen," recalled Willie.

Though usually played in front of more than 50,000 at Hampden Park, the Scottish League agreed to let the trophy be decided on Tayside and Dundee's new manager Donald Mackay won the toss for venue.

Now frantic plans are being made to enable the new Dens Park stand to be completed in time for the 24,700 all ticket match.

Pottigrow, once a prime target for top English clubs sees United's central defenders Paul Hegarty and David Marry as crucial to the Terrors' victory bid.

"We'll be looking for them to have a good start and that gives the rest of the team confidence, the same goes for Paul Sturrock and Graeme Payne," says the former Motherwell striker.

HOW THEY GOT THERE DUNDEE

First Round: Bye. Second Round: v Ashbroath (a) won 2-0 (Fletcher 2); v Ashbroath (h) won 3-0 (Sinclair, Fletcher, McLaren). Third Round: v Kilmarnock (h) drew 0-0; v Kilmarnock (a) drew 0-0 (Dundee won 5-3 on penalties from Shira, Fraser, Murphy, Williamson, Barr). Quarter-final: v Aberdeen (h) drew 2-2; v Aberdeen (a) won 1-0 (Fraser). Semi-final: v Ayr (a) drew 1-1 (Sinclair); v Ayr (h) won 3-2 (Williamson, Fraser, Sinclair).

DUNDEE UNITED

First Round: v East Fife (a) won 5-2 (Milne 2, Ward, Sturrock (pen), Marry); v East Fife (h) won 4-0 (Ward 2, Payne, Hegarty). Second Round: v Cowdenbeath (h) won 4-0 (Bannon 2, Sturrock, Hegarty); v Cowdenbeath (a) won 4-1 (Ward 2, Sturrock, Hegarty). Third Round: v Motherwell (a) lost 1-2 (Addison); v Motherwell (h) won 4-2 (Sturrock 2, Holt, Milne). Quarter-final: v Clydebank (a) lost 1-2 (Bannon); v Clydebank (h) won 4-1 (Ward 2, Sturrock, Hegarty). Semi-final: v Celtic (h) drew 1-1 (Bannon); v Celtic (a) won 3-0 (Pottigrow, Sturrock, Dedda).

Liverpool snatch record from the Lion's Den!

WITH their 2-1 defeat of League leaders Aston Villa, on November 22, Liverpool completed a run of 60 home League games without defeat to topple a record which had stood for 13 years.

Not since January 14, 1967, when Millwall were beaten 2-1 at the Den by Second Division rivals Plymouth Argyle, has any Football League side maintained such a record.

Here's the comparison of the two:

	P	W	D	L	For	Ag	Pts
Millwall	59	43	16	0	112	33	102

LEFT: Kenny Dalglish, who is on the verge of becoming the second man to score 100 goals in Scotland and England!

Previous defeat: April 20, 1964 v Bristol City (0-1) Biggest win: Jan 9, 1965 v Aldershot (5-0)

	P	W	D	L	For	Ag	Pts
Liverpool	60	47	13	0	139	25	107

Previous defeat: Jan 21, 1978, v Birmingham (2-3).

Biggest win: v Spurs, September 2, 1978 (7-0).

The goals which snatched the record from the 'Lions' came from Kenny Dalglish in the 66th and 89th minutes, but the Scotland star was reluctant to play up his role at the expense of the team's performance.

"My job's to play. I'm not really interested in records," commented Liverpool's leading scorer. "That's for the statisticians.

"But yes, I do remember that defeat by Birmingham. They led 3-0 at one stage and we pulled back to 3-2 before Jim Montgomery made a great save."

The goals which beat Villa — a typical fierce shot on the turn after a jinking run and a cheeky shot through the legs of Ken McNaught wide of Rimmer — took Dalglish two nearer a rare double.

Only the former Hibernian, Forest, Sunderland, Crystal Palace and Coventry striker Neil Martin has previously scored a century of goals in Scotland and England.

Now Dalglish, with 182 for Celtic and 91 for Liverpool, is set to join him in the new year — if not before!

Nice one, Doc

HEARING that Tommy Docherty has been offered the £40,000 a year job of managing Sydney Olympics — his 10th manager's post — I'm reminded of a funny story concerning the Doc.

A famous Scottish international who had been dropped from Manchester United first team once asked if Tommy could spare a minute.

"Of course," said the Doc, "what's the problem?" The player stammered: "Well boss I have just seen the team sheet and I see I'm in the reserves again."

"That's right," replied the Doc, "the third team haven't got a game!"

That kind of humour is our loss, the Aussies' gain.

WHAT a goals chase is going on at Tottenham! Steve Archibald vows: "I'll get 20 goals this season . . . Garth Crooks says: "I'll be disappointed if I don't get over 20."

And these two top strikers have a 50p bet on who gets the most goals.

On top of that manager Keith Burkinshaw says: "Glenn Hoddle should have more of a go for goals, but he's too unselfish."

So what a prospect in hand for White Hart Lane fans, they could quite easily be on a Treble Twenty this season!

Meet the Entertainers

GOALS are what all football fans want to see when they watch their favourite game — be it on the terraces or TV.

So just for fun the Match Weekly staff have put their heads together this week to select a team guaranteed to provide them . . . lots of them! (see previous page).

We've called it 'The attacking team of your dreams' and we think you'll be agree that our all-action side would be guaranteed to pack stadiums wherever they played.

Picking your own teams is super fun. So why not have a go yourself?

Select a side that you think would be tops for entertainment and attacking football and send it to The Entertainers, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

I'll pay £2 for every team published.

Another exclusive column

Fans, we need your help!

GARY

Nikki Jovanovic ... an extended first team run has revealed what a class player he is.

for MATCH WEEKLY readers.

UNITED have been playing very well away from home this season, but we haven't played as well as we know we can at Old Trafford.

And because of that we've been getting a bit of stick from some of our fans.

Maybe they feel they are entitled to criticise — after all they are the one's paying the money.

But it makes it difficult for the team. What we need is confidence to re-capture our excellent home form of last season.

And I would like to appeal to those fans to get behind us and give the team a boost.

United are still up near the top of the League, despite dropping more points than we would have liked.

And as one League manager said the other week: 'If this is what it's like when United are playing badly — heaven help us when they start playing well.'

Everyone in the side will always give 100 per cent in every game and it's frustrating at times when blame is laid solely at the feet of the home side.

People must appreciate that a lot of teams come to Old Trafford with designs on a 0-0 draw.

Both Coventry and Wolves came here with a defensive attitude and it doesn't make it easy when the opposition sets out their stall for a point.

Stoke are our next opponents at Old T a week on Saturday and hopefully they'll come here and make a game of it.

Naturally we'll be looking to land the League double over them having already beaten them 2-1 at their place.

But one player we'll have to watch is Lee Chapman who scored a hat trick against Norwich the other week.

● NEXT WEEK: Changing room superstitions at Old Trafford.

BAILEY

OUR WORLD CUP WIZARDS

CONGRATULATIONS to a couple of my team-mates at United . . . Stevie Coppell and Mickey Thomas (left) . . . for the part they played in the latest round of World Cup matches.

Stevie was in great form in England's 2-1 victory over Switzerland at Wembley, especially in the first half.

He was responsible for England's first goal and his speed in the one to one situations was a revelation.

Mickey also had good cause for celebration after Wales's 1-0 victory over Czechoslovakia.

He's an excellent player, but I'm sure he's only just beginning to realise that for himself.

They way he set up the Welsh winner was nothing short of brilliant.

While I'm on the subject of my team mates I'd just like to say a word about Garry Birtles.

Many people have said he's trying too hard to be a success.

Alright, so he's Manchester United's costliest signing, but it was the clubs that decided the fee — not Gerry.

He's such an honest guy that I'm sure he feels he ought to be doing more than he needs to.

An early goal at Old Trafford would have been just the tonic and he's been unlucky not to get on the scoresheet on more than one occasion.

But hopefully by the time you read this Garry will have popped one or two in.

For my own part let me just say what a great thrill it was to get my second England 'B' cap in the game against Australia at St Andrew's recently.

A chance to shine

INJURIES to established United players have been a real thorn in our side this season, but at the same time it has given players such as Mike Duxbury just the break they needed.

Mike has impressed a great number of people with the ease and confidence with which he has settled into the United side.

He usually plays deep on the left hand side of midfield, but he likes to get forward.

For a young man he shows tremendous calm and skill and there's no doubt he is destined for a great future in the game.

His performances at club level have already earned him international recognition — coming on as substitute as he did in the England Under-21 side's 5-0 win over Switzerland.

Congratulations to United boss Dave Sexton by the way, under whose guidance the Under-21 side are maintaining their exciting play of the last few years.

But Mike Duxbury's not the only 'new face' to really make his mark on the First Division.

Injuries to Gordon McQueen and Martin Buchan have led to extended run-outs for both Kevin Moran and Nikki Jovanovic.

Kevin's a hard player and superbly suited to the role of ball winner at the back.

Nikki's basic role — although he loves to get forward — is that of sweeper.

He's a lovely footballer and his ability to strike a ball is typically continental.

LIAM BRADY

Juventus and Eire

BIRTHPLACE: Dublin, Eire.
BIRTHDATE: February 13, 1956.
CAREER: Arsenal, Juventus (whom he joined in July 1980 for £600,000.)
FOOTBALL LEAGUE

DEBUT: As sub for Arsenal v Birmingham, October 6, 1973 (won 1-0).
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 235 (43 goals).
INTERNATIONAL APPEARANCES: 30 full Eire caps.

He has magical control, says Roberto Bettega

LIAM Brady has been creating a new career for himself in the cauldron of Italian football. So who better to ask about his qualities than his new Juventus team-mate Roberto Bettega, capped many times by his country?

"Brady's only 24 but already has the experience of a veteran. He has magical control with that left foot," Bettega told MATCH.

"Another quality is his ability to spot an unmarked player from as far as 40 yards and find him with an accurate pass."

"He is very good at creating chances from either left or right and I remember particularly the two goals he made for me in the recent Italian FA Cup tie with Udinese."

"We were trailing 2-0 and Brady supplied the two crosses, one from the left, the other from the right, which I headed in to earn a 2-2 draw."

"And Liam showed he can score goals too in our 2-1 win against champions Inter Milan last week. He scored twice in seven minutes, the first a penalty and the second a shot off the bar."

Match Weekly's exclusive guide to . . .

The safest

Manchester United's brilliant young keeper Gary Bailey leads the field in the race to find the man with the safest pair of hands in the First Division.

Gary's record so far this season certainly confirms his position as current first choice for the England 'B' side.

After 19 League and League Cup appearances for United he had conceded just 14 goals . . . an average of one goal every 122 minutes.

And they are figures that leave England's "top two" keepers — Ray Clemence and Peter Shilton — trailing in his wake.

At the time we put together our survey, the player currently pushing hardest to claim top spot from Match columnist Gary, was Ipswich's Town's Paul Cooper — arguably the best keeper never to be capped.

Up to and including the matches played on November 22 Paul had conceded 14 goals in 18 matches . . . and kept eight clean sheets.

But it's West Brom's Tony Godden — third in the running — who has kept the most clean sheets with nine 'blanks' from 23 games.

Spurs' Barry Daines claims the best run of matches without conceding a goal — earlier on in the season he went four matches without being beaten.

And Liverpool's Ray Clemence is the only keeper in our survey still to concede more than two goals in one match.

FOOTNOTE: Match Weekly acknowledges the part played by defenders in establishing these goalkeeping records.

*There's nothing to choose between England's top two — Ray
Clemence (left) and Peter Shilton (above). Both have conceded an average of one goal a game.*

Pat Jennings — Arsenal

Tony Godden — West Brom

Barry Daines — Spurs

Jimmy Rimmer — Aston Villa

hands in soccer

THE FIRST column in the table below shows the number of games played. The second column shows the number of goals conceded and the third column is the average number of minutes play between each goal. For instance so far this season Norwich City's Roger Hansbury has conceded an average of one goal every 44 minutes.

Note: Only League and League Cup matches up to and including those played on November 22 have been used in the compilation of this table and only goalkeepers who had played at least ten games qualified for inclusion.

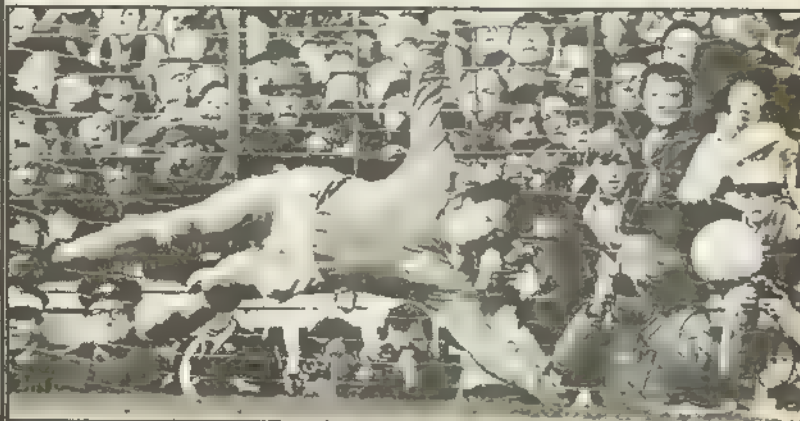

The top stoppers

KEEPER	Games	Goals	Mins played per goal
1 Gary Bailey (Man Utd)	19	14	122
2 Paul Cooper (Ipswich)	18	14	116
3 Tony Godden (West Brom)	22	19	109
4 Jimmy Rimmer (Aston Villa)	22	20	99

18 Mark Wallington (Leicester)	21	35	54
19 John Lukic (Leeds Utd)	21	36	52
19 Jim Platt (Middlesbrough)	18	31	52
21 Graham Moseley (Brighton)	22	39	51
22 Paul Barron (Crystal Palace)	22	40	49
23 Roger Hansbury (Norwich)	22	41	48
24 Ivan Katalinic (Southampton)	14	27	47

Above: Gary Bailey — leading the field when it comes to keeping out the goals. On only two occasions this season has he conceded more than one goal in a match.

Below: Ipswich Town's Paul Cooper almost gets to this Terry McDermott penalty-kick earlier in the season. His record speaks for itself.

FRANS THIJSSEN

In his second week at the Match Weekly Soccer School, Frans Thijssen, Ipswich Town's talented Dutch midfielder hands out some tips to readers on the pass with the inside and outside of the foot.

Ipswich Pass Master

The pass with the outside of my foot is probably my favourite type of pass.

I play on the right side of the Ipswich midfield, with John Wark to my left and Arnold Muhren on his left, and it's a natural pass for me when we play down the right.

I can either play it straight forward to one of the strikers and perhaps take a return pass on the outside or I can hold it up, draw a defender to me then flick the ball wide to George Burley on an overlap.

It's a good pass for one-two's because you can play it on the run without losing your stride and it can also be played quickly to catch opponents out when it is unexpected.

Be careful not to use the outside of the foot flick for long passes over about 20 yards. You can tend to lose balance and accuracy and a great danger of giving the ball away.

The push pass with the inside of the foot is perhaps the best way to give a good accurate pass as there's a wide area to strike with.

It may look simple, but like everything it needs practice. Use any wall for this and you'll be amazed how quickly you'll improve your touch with your weaker foot.

ABOVE RIGHT:

1 ... Frans approaches for a pass with his right foot

2 ... Just before impact makes sure strike area is wide, for accuracy ...

3 ... Follows through, watching the ball closely to its target.

RIGHT:

1 ... Approached as if to play straight ahead ...

2 ... then switches direction to flick the ball with the outside of his foot.

3 ... into the path of a team mate supporting on the outside.

TERRY Venables' first splash in the transfer market took highly-rated striker Simon Stainrod from Oldham to Queens Park Rangers.

But shrewd Oldham manager Jimmy Frizzell used part of the £250,000 to buy a replacement from Manchester City, in the shape of Roger Palmer.

Here the two players in the transfer swap talk to MATCH WEEKLY about the move.

Simply great, Simon

QUEENS PARK RANGERS new signing Simon Stainrod hopes to give his former manager Jimmy Frizzell a few sleepless nights . . .

The talented 22-year-old striker explained: "After the transfer was completed Jimmy said the deal could haunt him. I hope he is right!"

The Oldham manager admitted he was worried that the £250,000 he collected was not enough and that Simon could go on to prove he was worth a great deal more.

"If Jimmy had sold me at the beginning of the season I think he could have got a lot more for me. My form this season has not been too good," said Simon.

But it was good enough to impress QPR manager Terry Venables and tempt him to make his first big signing for the London club since taking over at Loftus Road.

"Despite Jimmy's reservations the move is a good one for everybody concerned because it has given me an opportunity to improve my game and provide Oldham with some much needed cash, plus enough to buy a very good replacement," added Simon. "I am looking forward to my career in London."

"Obviously promotion to the First Division is my target and I believe QPR are capable of that this season."

Simon is rated so highly that Oldham will collect an extra £50,000 if he gets a full England cap.

"Obviously I am hoping that Rangers will have to pay up. I know I have the ability, but sometimes my application is not all that it should be."

Above: Simon Stainrod. "If Oldham had sold me at the beginning of the season I think they could have got a lot more for me."

Roger Palmer: "No way will Manchester City get relegated this season."

Palmer's Reunion

IT WAS not so much about meeting new faces when Roger Palmer walked into Oldham Athletic's Boundary Park for the first time . . . more like a reunion.

For the £70,000 signing met up with four former Manchester City colleagues — assistant manager Bill Taylor and players Kenny Clements, Ged Keegan, and Alan Fletcher.

"It is a great move for me because I know a lot of the staff and it means I will not have to uproot myself from the Manchester area," said Roger.

"I was unhappy at Maine Road because I was not getting first team football.

And I don't regard the move as a step down because I was in the reserves at City and to play first team football can only be an improvement.

"Obviously I was sad to leave City because I had been there since I was 15-years-old, but there was no prospect of me breaking into the first team.

"Even so, I reckon that John Bond is doing a good job since taking over from Malcolm Allison and Tony Beak.

"There's no way they will get relegated this season because they are too good," added Roger.

"Oldham were fourth from bottom of the Second Division when I joined them, but that didn't worry me. I know we have the talent to stay up."

FABER

They me so

ONE OF the highlights of my life was when I scored 104 in a match last season.

But before you think I've flipped, or you go scurrying to look it up in the record books, let me say that I was playing cricket — the other sporting love of my life.

I was batting for Birmingham side Moor Green Hall in a friendly match when I notched up my best ever score.

I remember I was finally caught after I had flung my bat in an attempt to hit another six!

I love cricket and last season had the chance to play regularly — in fact, I was quite successful and finished top of the club's batting honours with an average 40 runs per game.

I spent many relaxing Sundays last summer watching my local county, Warwickshire, winning the John Player League.

Away from football and cricket pitches I also enjoy playing squash, tennis and snooker.

I am a very active person and enjoy most sports but when I do put my feet up I enjoy listening to music.

I have just bought a new stereo unit, so the Shaw household is humming to the beat of my favourite bands Supertramp and Police, and my favourite musician George Benson.

Leeds are so lucky for me

LEEDS United fans must hate it every time they see me line-up for Aston Villa at Elland Road.

I don't know why but I always seem to score or play a hinder whenever I go to Leeds.

That's why I must rate the place as my favourite away ground.

This season alone I've scored three goals there — two in the League Cup and one in the League.

I like the ground — it is just a pity that they do not get more fans there. New manager Allan Clarke could remedy that though if they can string some good results together.

I rate their former England international defender Paul Madeley as the toughest opponent I have ever faced — he always gives forwards a hard time.

Right: PAUL MADELEY of Leeds United must rate as the most difficult opponent I have faced in my short career — but his home pitch, Elland Road, is my favourite away ground.

couldn't stop scoring

The GARY SHAW Story

Hoddle's my favourite

TOTTENHAM's Glenn Hoddle is one of the most exciting players in the game today.

He is my favourite Football League player because he has tremendous ability and the flair to turn the game with a flash of genius.

Glenn also gets some tremendous goals — I'll never forget his terrific volley against Manchester United last season.

He scored 22 goals for Spurs last season from midfield and that in itself is a tribute to his ability.

This season he seems to have put a lot of emphasis on hard work and this has added to his all round contribution.

Many people say that he should be a regular in the England team now and I think he has been unlucky not to gain more caps — but he certainly has a great international future ahead of him.

MATCH WEEKLY

OUTRAGED!

I'm Anthony Hawkswell and I'm in charge of the Outraged column.

I'll stand no nonsense . . . any back chat and you could get sent off!

I'll be giving the red card to what I judge to be the letter of the week. And yellow cards to any others published.

And to make it more interesting I'll pay £5 for the red card and £2 for each yellow card.

But be warned. I'm the ref and my decisions stand!

Send your letters to Outraged, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

You're off! £5

Sack Gordon Milne

I THINK it is about time Coventry City sacked their manager Gordon Milne.

While Milne has been in charge at Highfield Road the Midlands team have not won anything and do not look likely to in the near future.

I think the sooner the directors sack him the better.

Paul Fariss (15), Wyken, Coventry.

● LEAVE the field immediately! You're off your trolley. Gordon has put together a good side with a lot of potential — and he has done it on a very modest budget.

With supporters like you it's little wonder Gordon has such a difficult task.

Reds are too good

I WOULDN'T agree with a points for goals system because Liverpool could well end up winning the championship yet again.

I looked at some of the games they played last season and saw that they had scored four or more goals in a match seven times and three in a game eight times

Alan Denton,
 North Bransholme,
 Hull, Humberside.

● THE yellow card for you! The whole point of points for goals is to make football more entertaining — not stop Liverpool winning the title.

You're in the book! £2

Make cup ties fairer

I THINK League Cup and FA Cup ties should be played on neutral grounds as long as they are not two leg affairs.

If this happened there would be no home advantage and this would make the whole game a lot fairer.

If there were two legs in every cup tie then that would be fair; but to draw the home side out of a hat doesn't give the visitors much of a chance.

Dawn Green (16),
 Nottingham.

You're in the book! £2

● OH NO! Another booking. What on earth are you trying to do — ruin our cup competitions. Why deny local fans the chance to watch their teams in action. The cup is all about the luck of the draw. And two leg matches each round would ruin the sudden death atmosphere.

Northern domination

You're in the book! £2

I AM outraged that the Merseyside and Manchester derbies attract so much publicity and yet the other matches in the Midlands and London often go without mention.

The other derbies are just as important to the fans involved and usually produce better matches.

So come on — give them better coverage!

A. Pountney, Halesowen.

● YOU'RE booked. I am sick and tired of jealous people trying to knock the Northern teams.

Matchmakers

I THINK Match Weekly should do a 'Matchmaker' feature on famous managers in the game.

I'm sure many readers would like to know Brian Clough's musical taste, Bobby Robson's favourite player or Tommy Docherty's advice to youngsters.

Gareth Webb,
 Bolton, Lancs.

● ANOTHER name in my overcrowded black book. We hear enough from managers nowadays without that sort of thing. People tend to forget that players are the most important people.

You're in the book! £2

Wake up Jock and pick Hartford

I CAN'T understand why Everton's Asa Hartford is not playing for Scotland anymore. Since going to Goodison Park he has been dropped from the national team — but he has been playing well enough to earn a recall.

He has been playing so well that he won the Match Weekly 'Matchman of the Month' for August — where were Graeme Souness, Archie Gemmill and Gordon Strachan in the awards?

Let's hope for Scotland's sake that Jock Stein wakes up and picks him for the next match against Israel in February. Simon Eales, West Derby, Liverpool.

Everton's Asa Hartford should be a regular for Scotland says Simon Eales.

Goof of the week!

HALIFAX Town may be struggling to keep their place in the Fourth Division, but meanwhile it seems that they are holding down a respectable mid table place in the Scottish Premier Division!

This goof — showing Halifax in the Scottish League — was spotted by eagle eyed Mark Bragg, of Waltham Forest, London E17.

Don't forget to send in any 'Golden Goofs' you may have seen in the papers!

Think back, Archie

I WAS shocked by the comments of Birmingham and Scotland international Archie Gemmill in a recent issue of Match.

He said Villa lack the quality that keeps teams at the top. Well, well, Archie! I seem to remember various sceptics saying exactly the same thing about Nottingham Forest when they took the First Division by storm in 1977/78.

When people were saying that Forest's success was a flash in the pan and that their bubble would soon burst what did he, as a Forest player, think then?

Think back, Archie!

Malcolm Dale, Leeds, Yorks.

TERRACE TALK

Archie Gemmill of Birmingham — he has upset Villa fan Malcolm Dale, of Leeds.

Praise your players, Bobby

£10 WINNER

I FOUND it a shame that Ipswich manager Bobby Robson had to spend his after-match talk with the press complaining about the manner in which Terry Butcher was sent off during their 3-3 draw at Southampton.

Perhaps he was frustrated because his side lost a two goal lead and had to settle for a draw.

But I think Bobby would have been better employed praising the efforts of youngster Steve McCall (who looked a fine prospect), Kevin Beattie and skipper Mick Mills.

The result was fair, the sending off was fair and the winners of this match were the supporters.

Richard Veck, Netley Abbey, Southampton, Hants.

Courageous Bond

I WAS disgusted with what Philip Norman said about John Bond and his son Kevin in the November 15th issue of Match.

I feel that John made a very courageous move when he took the manager's job at Manchester City. At the time he said he could do no more for Norwich and I think that is true.

As for his son Kevin I do not blame him for wanting to leave the Norfolk club after the way his father was treated.

I was more than pleased when Manchester City beat Norwich and I wish John and his son all the best for the future.

Valerie Bartlett (16), Clacton-on-Sea, Essex.

Let's have a £600,000 transfer limit

I THINK there should be a transfer ceiling of £600,000 — no players should be sold for more.

These inflated prices nowadays mean that clubs have to put up their admission cost to afford to buy the top players.

Andrew Bell, Darlington, County Durham.

Ipswich Town youngster Steve McCall. Bobby Robson should have talked about his skills and not moaned about the Terry Butcher sending off.

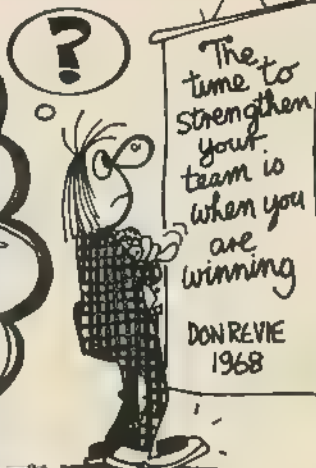

Fans can't afford two games a week

I THINK that the number of games played in midweek should be cut down.

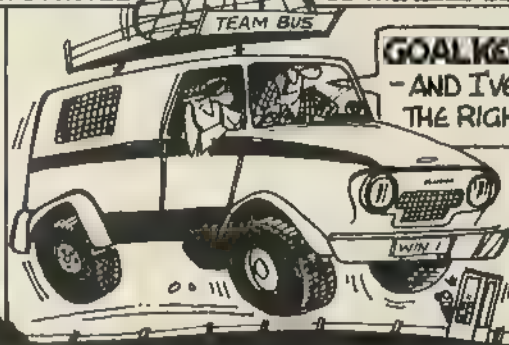

Fans can no longer afford to go to two matches a week. European matches should be the only ones allowed during the week.

ATTACK!

It's the only way for Spurs

IMAGINE the scene . . . Liverpool have just been defeated at Anfield for the first time in nearly three years.

Difficult isn't it? Unless you happen to be a devoted Spurs fan of course . . . and even then it's not easy.

For Tottenham are next in line for a shot at halting the Merseyside machine.

In players like Glenn Hoddle, Ossie Ardiles, Ricky Villa, Garth Crooks and Steve Archibald they certainly have the fire-power to break down Liverpool's defence.

And anyone who doubts that statement should remember Spurs 3-0 victory over Nottingham Forest at the City Ground . . . where it's almost as hard to win.

On the other hand Liverpool's strength in depth is staggering.

They score more goals than any team in the First Division and defensively they are as well drilled as the Coldstream Guards.

Spurs big weapon is their commitment to attack — home and away.

Plenty of teams have threatened to take the game to Liverpool at Anfield.

Not so many have kept their promise when the crunch came.

Tottenham's team just isn't built to defend.

They will attack Liverpool. And dare I say it . . . they'll win too.

THE FACTS

SPURS last won a League game against Liverpool at Anfield on March 16, 1912

In 34 League meetings at Anfield since then Liverpool have won 21 and there have been 13 draws Above right: Spurs' Argentinian midfielder Ricky Villa may be overshadowed by his partners in midfield, but his mixture of power and skill is a threat to the best organised defences.

Bond's boys are good for victory

NEWCASTLE v BLACKBURN ROVERS? Met only once in the League at St James's Park.

Newcastle won 3-1 that day and they'll win again on Saturday.

WHAT of the rest of Saturday's matches?

Well, two months ago I wouldn't have given MANCHESTER CITY much chance against IPSWICH — home or away.

Now I reckon the boys at Maine Road are good for victory.

The last time Ipswich failed to score in a League game at Maine Road was nine years ago when they were beaten 4-0.

But I'm going for them to fail again on Saturday . . . 2-0 to City.

LEEDS have a good record against WEST BROM in previous League clashes at the Hawthorns.

They've won three and drawn one of their last six matches there.

Albion will even things up on Saturday however with a comfortable win . . . 3-0!

I liked what I saw of Wolves when I watched them at Tottenham this season — but they are having trouble producing consistent performances.

I just hope that we hit them in the middle of a bad patch and take another two points.

The match will also give me a chance to meet up again with my former England skipper Emlyn Hughes and under-21 colleague Peter Daniel.

The title? Don't

THE GUNNERS have been unfairly labelled a boring side away from home.

The accusation was most recently levelled at us after our goalless draw against Liverpool at Anfield, but the plain truth of the matter is that the champions just didn't allow us to play.

They attacked us from the start and we were not given a chance to string together many good attacks — and that is a tribute to the power of Liverpool.

Manager Terry Neill never tells us to sit back and defend away from home. His orders are always the same — 'go out there and play'.

Many supporters are writing Arsenal off when it comes to the championship, but

My worst game

MY WORST ever game for England — that's how I saw my performance in England's disappointing 2-1 win over Switzerland.

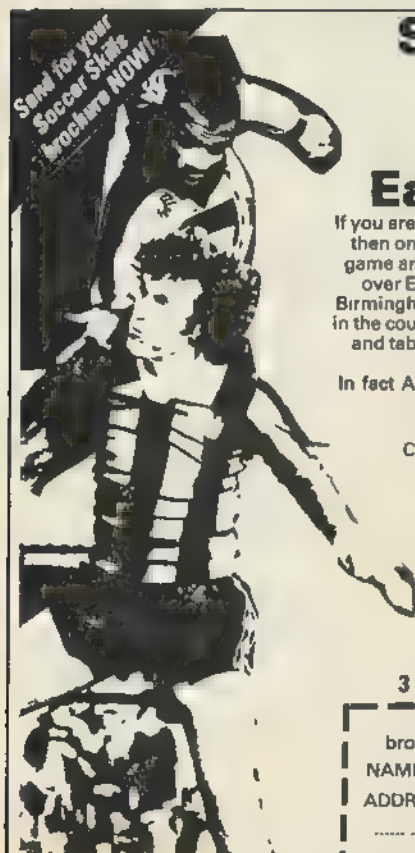

It was a real sickener for me and I felt sorry for the fans who had to endure such a poor second half.

But I think the England lads have learnt a very important lesson. We must not let opposing teams play when they come to Wembley.

To be perfectly honest we let the Swiss off the hook.

We played some great stuff in the first half and when we scored two quick goals I could see us getting a hatful.

In the second half we seemed to change

Don't write us off!

even though we have not played well this season we are still challenging near the top.

We have not yet clicked into top gear — but if we can string a couple of good results together it would change our League position considerably.

There is no doubt that Arsenal have missed the midfield skills of Liam Brady.

He controlled the middle of the park and laid on some tremendous passes.

Obviously, his replacement, Steve Gattin, doesn't have Liam's experience but time will put that right.

Steve is a good young player and I rate him highly.

Right: Arsenal's young midfield player Steve Gattin has the awesome task of taking Liam Brady's place in the side.

our style of play. There was no cohesion or teamwork and this allowed the Swiss to push forward and hit us with a goal.

However, I thought that we were really unlucky to have two goals disallowed.

Tony Woodcock's effort was particularly unfair because one of the Swiss defenders deliberately ran off the pitch so that Tony would be judged offside.

I also thought Paul Mariner did well to get up and head his 'second' — but again the linesman's flag went up.

Having said all that, we still came away with two very important points and that keeps us on target for a place in the World Cup Finals in Spain.

Oh, Boyer!

GOLDEN GOAL

PHIL BOYER

(Southampton) v Ipswich, Football League Division One, The Dell, November 8, 1980.

★★★★★★★★★★

Boyer's goal put Saints back on terms at 2-2, before Paul Mariner edged Ipswich back in front and young Steve Moran popped up for a late equaliser, in a thrilling game, marred only by the dismissal of Town's Terry Butcher.

AFTER finishing top scorer in the First Division last season, Phil Boyer was beginning to lose the habit of finding the net.

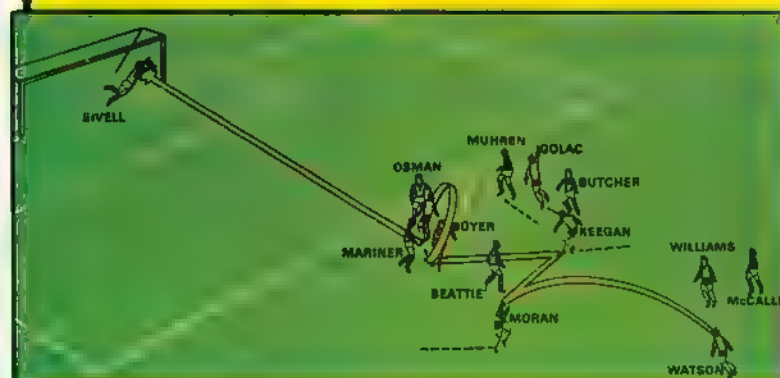

"I'd missed pre-season training and scored only once up to this, my 499th League appearance," said Phil.

"I'd taken a long time to regain my sharpness around the box, but against Ipswich I began to find my form and this goal was really satisfying.

Smashing!"

"A long clearance was headed back in, nodded on by Steve Moran and Kevin Keegan played it to me first time.

"I didn't think about it, just flicked it up and hit it on the turn into the top corner Smashing!"

TACKLE A STAR

PETER MOORE,

from Sutton Coldfield, Birmingham...

WHAT is your favourite position on the field?

BRYAN: That's an easy one to answer Peter — midfield.

I love the involvement of playing in the middle of the park. You are always in the thick of the action.

I have played at the back for West Bromwich and as sweeper for England and although I enjoy the experience of playing in different roles I like to get back into the engine room.

HAVE you got a question for your favourite footballer? If so jot it down and send it to: Tackle A Star, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

Players who will be appearing in this popular feature soon are Norwich's exciting forward Justin Fashanu and Aston Villa's Tony Morley.

Don't forget that we will pay £2 for each letter we publish.

This Week

West Brom and England midfield star...

BRYAN ROBSON

STEPHEN TYRELL,

from Chorley, Lancs...

HOW do you see your England career progressing?

BRYAN: Well Stephen — now that I have got my England chance it is up to me to play my best and persuade manager Ron Greenwood that I am good enough to keep it.

I have been quite pleased with my performances in an England shirt — especially during the Rumania game — and have thoroughly enjoyed playing for my country.

I have not scored, or got into any real scoring positions for England, but I am confident that will come as I establish myself in the side.

It is very difficult for a player to come into a team and make an impact straight away.

SALLY ROGERS,

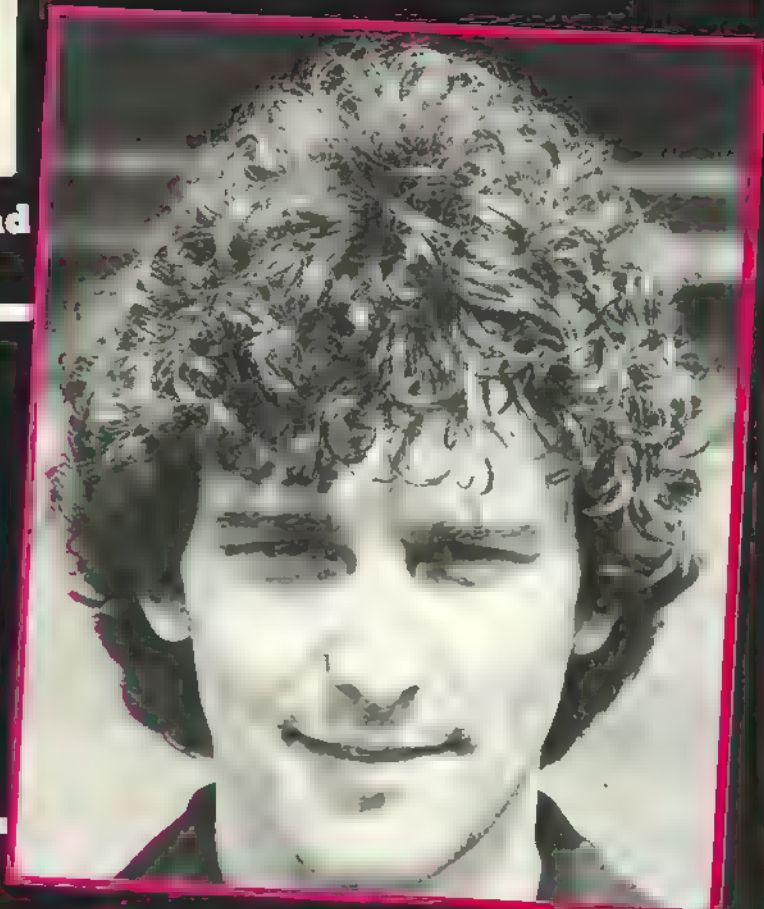

from West Haddon, Northampton

WHAT are your hobbies and do you have any pre-match superstitions?

BRYAN: Well Sally, like most other players I escape from the pressures of football by playing golf. I also enjoy horse racing.

although I don't go to as many meetings as I used to since I got married!

I have no real superstitions but I do like to wear the number seven shirt when I play for West Bromwich Albion.

ARNOLD SUTTON,

from Warley, West Midlands

HOW do you rate West Brom's League chances this season and why have they improved so much from last term?

BRYAN: I think we still have an outside chance of winning the League Championship.

Our main priority this season is to win back our European place and I am confident that we can.

As regards our form last season, we were unsettled by injuries.

We also had a couple of new players come into the side and it obviously took them time to settle in and get used to our style.

This season our strikers, Cyrille Regis and Ally Brown (left), have rediscovered their confidence and are scoring goals quite regularly.

Roger Hayton,

from Norwich, Norfolk

WHAT are your hopes and ambitions in the game?

BRYAN: I want to win a cup with West Brom this season. We are still going well in the League Cup and as long as we avoid Liverpool I see no reason why we can't get to Wembley.

I want to keep my place in the England side for at least the next eight years — that means I would love to be part of England's World Cup plans in 1982.

TONY KELLOW — ambitious for a First Division chance.

Left: Flashback to 'Match' last week, which showed how Kellow went to the top of the scoring charts with two F.A. Cup goals against Leatherhead.

EXETER CITY's Tony Kellow knows that he can do the most difficult job in football — score goals consistently.

And the Third Division striker, who became the League's leading scorer last month, is letting his goals do the talking in his bid to attract the top clubs.

"I have not given up hope of a career in the First Division, and I am confident that I could score goals in the top flight," said 28-year-old Tony, who netted twice in Exeter's F.A. Cup win over Leatherhead to take his tally for the season to 19.

In his time at Blackpool the Lancashire club actually turned down bids from two First Division clubs for Tony's services.

"I was very upset at the time but I understood the manager's reasons for not letting me go," said Tony, who has averaged 20 goals a season during his five years as a professional.

Amazingly he puts much of his goalscoring form this season down to an injury.

Explained Tony: "Although I have not missed any games this season I have been troubled by a niggling injury and this has meant that I have not been able to do as much chasing and running as I usually do."

"Consequently I have concentrated my efforts in front of goal and the chances are going in even more regularly."

"That's not to say that I don't do my share in the team — I'm just staying where a striker should be."

"Goalscoring is an instinctive thing and not something that can be coached into players — that's why there aren't many prolific strikers in the game today."

"At the beginning of each season I set myself a target of 20 goals — but this term I have already had to aim higher and that's definitely the way I like it," he added.

Watch out next week for a feature on Devon's other deadly striker.

The Road to Stardom

Why West Ham was not for me

by Orient's express winger John Chiedoie

ORIENT'S exciting young winger John Chiedoie could have been thrilling the fans at Upton Park if West Ham had not made him play in the car park!

For when John was 14-years-old the young trialists were expected to train on the tarmac at the ground.

"I was worried in case I got injured, so after a month I left West Ham and went to Orient," said John.

It was at the same time as Henry Hughton (brother of Spurs and Eire full-back Chris) that John signed apprentice forms and he has never regretted his decision to join the 'O's.

London clubs began to show an active interest in young John's development when he played for Newham and District Schools team in a side that boasted the likes of Vince Hilaire (Crystal Palace), Chris Hughton (Spurs and Eire) and Nicky Morgan (West Ham).

On leaving school John took up Orient's offer of apprentice forms and just over a year later — at the age of 16 — he was in League action.

His first full game for Orient was in John Chiedoie — quit West Ham after a month to join Orient.

March 1977 at home against Millwall.

"I remember that Laurie Cunningham (now Real Madrid) had just been sold to West Bromwich Albion and I took his place on the wing — I was very nervous."

Despite his nerves John impressed then manager George Petchey enough to make six more full appearances before the end of the season.

Since the 1977-78 season he has been a regular member of the side and has become a great favourite with the Brisbane Road crowd.

This term his sparkling form in the Second Division earned him the Match Weekly Matchmen of the Month award for September.

His present manager Jimmy Bloomfield has likened the youngster to the man he replaced — Laurie Cunningham.

"John is just like Laurie — he has great control and electric pace," said Jimmy.

TRUE GRIT

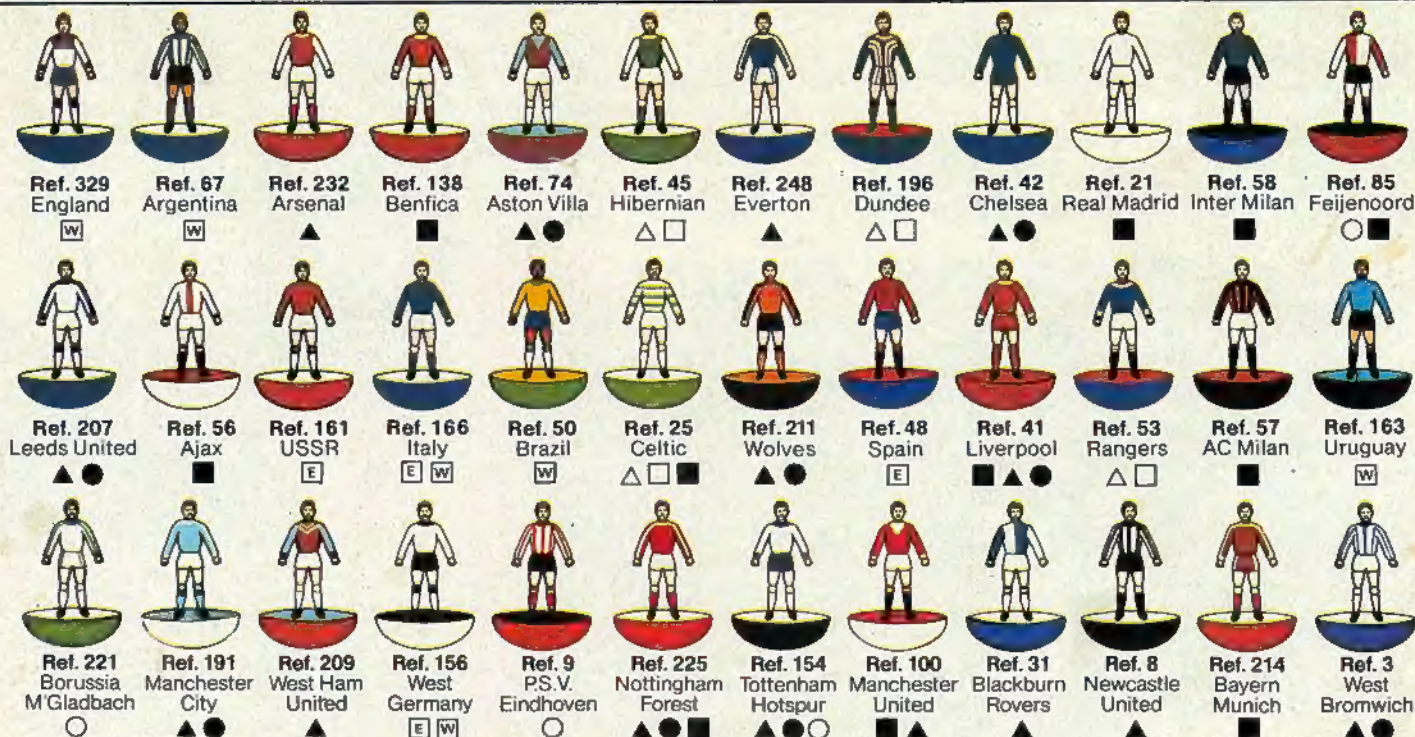

NO TWO players reflect the gritty determination to succeed more than West Brom's John Wile (left) and Trevor Cherry of Leeds.

The two skippers meet at the Hawthorns on Saturday in a match which means so much to both of these loyal servants of their clubs.

For John it's a chance for Albion to maintain their challenge at the top and for Trevor points are crucial in United's struggle to drag themselves from the foot of the table.

May the best man win!
